

December 2009

Jonathan Miller has joined our firm as an associate after recently receiving word that he passed the Bar. Mr. Miller has been working for Cota Cole pending the Bar results, and now becomes a full-fledged associate member of this firm. As an associate, Mr. Miller will be focusing on civil litigation for both municipal and private clients.

Mr. Miller is a graduate of Westmont College and a product of the University of California-Davis, King Hall School of Law. Before law school, Mr. Miller worked at Direct Relief International, a nonprofit that sends medical supplies to Third World countries.

